NEAT CLUB ROOMS ATTACHED
Commercial Row, Reno, Nevada

Girls who have to stand on their feet most of the time work as hard as any day-laborer yet they do not get what is rightly called exercise. Close, confining, indoor occupation gives no exhilaration to the nervous system nor active circulation to the blood. It wears, tears and drags a woman's life away. The whole physical system grows sluggish and torpid under it.

No wonder so many sales girls and factory girls and housewives suffer from indigestion and constipation and bilious troubles. No wonder they are subject to the diseases of the delicate special organism of their sex. The wonder is rather that they can stand it as well as they do.

But "a poor weak woman," as she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles. Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most eminent medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Occupying this position thirty years he has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy. The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. His "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only permanent digestive and nutrient tonic. The two medicines taken alternately form the most perfect and successful course of treatment ever prescribed for female troubles complicated with a sluggish, overwrought, nervous, diseased constitution. In severe constipation Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be occasionally taken with the others. They never gripe.

The Country Clergyman.

An old clergyman who had held a cure in the depths of the country for the greater part of his life had occasion to consult his bishop on a certain matter, and, in answer to his letter, received an invitation to sleep the night at the palace. For 40 or 50 years he had practically led the life of a recluse, and it was after many cogitations that he decided to take the journey to the other end of the diocese, where the bishop lived. He arrived just in time for 5 o'clock tea, a meal to which he was a complete stranger.

After tea the bishop asked him to accompany him to evensong. When they returned to the house, the bishop, remarking that it was quite time they went up stairs, lit a candle and showed his guest to his room. It was then just 7 o'clock, and, though the old clergyman thought it was rather early to retire, still, admiring the bishop for such simple habits, he prepared for bed. He had just put out the light and lain down to sleep, wishing he had drunk a little more tea, when a booming noise rang through the house and smote upon his ear.

Quick as thought he sprang from his bed and, shouting "Fire!" at the top of his voice, rushed out to the landing just in time to meet the bishop, with a lady on his arm, going down to dinner. The sequel to the story has never been divulged.—Cornhill Magazine.

A Lost Opportunity.

It was near one of the large railroad stations. A man rather advanced in years, whose old fashioned attire and open mouthed wonderment proclaimed that he was a visitor from the rural districts and not accustomed to the everyday sights of a large city, was suddenly accosted by a sharp visaged youth with: "Mister, yer dropped yer wallet." As he spoke he held forth a large wallet well stuffed with old revenue stamps covered with a couple of dollar bills.

Uncle Rube looked at the greenbacks bulging out of the wallet with equally protruding eyes, hesitated just one moment, and then, his cupidly evidently getting the better of him, reached for it. "Hold on; give us a tinner fust," exclaimed the possessor of the wallet. "The old man quickly put his hand in his trousers pocket; but, after a moment, drawing forth his empty hand, he drawled out, "Take it out o' the wallet."

The youth, closing the wallet with ill concealed disgust, turned on his heel and hurried off. The stranger in town looked after the youth a moment, and then, muttering, "Gol dern! Missed it ag'in. I told Sal I'd need more'n $3," he resumed his peaceful way.—Philadelphia Record.

Really a Kind Man.

"Did you see anything of a pocket-book that I dropped somewhere in the bedroom I occupied last night, landlord?"

"Any money in it?"
"About $100."
"Yes, sir. Here is your pocketbook, with the money. The maid was honest enough to bring it to me, and I locked it up in the safe."

"Ah, very correct proceeding, very. I had intended placing the money in the bank this morning, where it would have been drawing 4 per cent. As a reward for your honesty I will say nothing about the interest for the time it has been in your possession, and you can make it square with the chambermaid. There is nothing small about me when I run across a man who seems to be trying to do what's right."—London Telegraph.

Flattering.

Reggie's fiancée—You know, Reggie, that girls are being called by the names of flowers now, and my sister suggested that I should be called Thistle. Reggie—Oh, yes, I see—because you are so sharp.

She—Oh, no! She said it was because a donkey loved me.—Pick Me Up.

An Examiner reporter interviewed, or attempted to interview, Senator Stewart at his wife's residence at Carson last Saturday, the result being published in Sunday morning's edition of that paper. The Senator refused to be questioned, upon the plea that he was neither under oath nor on the witness stand. "Colonel," Quinn who of course was present, was disposed to be more communicative, and notwithstanding the protests of his superior, insisted upon giving the reporter the object of his mission out here in the wilds of Nevada. He gravely asserted that he was sent here by the organizers of the Free Silver party in the East and in the interest of free silver and the Democratic party. His omission to exhibit credentials from the "Free Silver party" was doubtless an oversight which will be rectified later on. He said he was not sent here in the interest of "anyone in particular," so of course his accompanying Senator Stewart from Chicago, was the result of an accident and his being installed as a guest at the "Stewart mansion" was only an act of courtesy and hospitality, for which our junior Senator is noted all the world over. The "Colonel" gave us another evidence that he was not here in the interest of Stewart or the Southern Pacific, the fact that he was getting $100 a day salary, which was more than Huntington and Stewart could afford to pay him. This leaves it presumable that the "Free Silver party" in the East can afford to pay the redoubtable Kernel $100 dollars per day to do missionary work in the silver producing State of Nevada, which gave Bryan more than a three-fourth majority two years ago and that it considers it a judicious investment to do so.

But it is sickening to comment upon such contemptible and transparent falsehoods. It is an insult to the intelligence of our readers to allude to them, except as illustrations of the shallow and almost idiotic devices resorted to by the man who seeks to terrorize the Legislature into returning him to the United States Senate. The whole story can be summed up as follows: Stewart bulldozes the Silver Party State Convention into endorsing him as United States Senator. Every dollar that was used in the campaign was expended for the sole benefit of the Stewart Legislative ticket. In every county in the State when a Silver party State candidate could be traded for a legislator it was done, from Governor down to University Regent. It was done right here in Reno and Reinhold Sailer was one of the victims. With all this expenditure of money, treachery and trading, Stewart failed to come within rifle shot of electing enough members to effect his election. After exhausting his purchasing capacity, he still found himself short, and in his desperation the wretched old man has engaged a gang of gun-fighters, murderers, pugilists and thugs to terrorize the legislature into submission to his will.

It is to be hoped on the first day of the session that some member in each House will introduce a resolution requesting Senator Stewart to withdraw his horde of bulldozing invaders from our State. Let a vote upon such a resolution be taken in each branch, then the people will know by what amount of manhood they are represented in the legislature and how much they will have to furnish to save the commonwealth from being dragged into the lowest depths of disgrace and infamy.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST

As the time draws nearer for the election of a successor to Senator Stewart by the Legislature, it becomes more and more apparent that the choice will be narrowed down to Newlands and Stewart, with the chances in favor of the former if the opposition to Stewart can be contested on him. The results of the recent election proved beyond a doubt that the people of Nevada desired to rid themselves of the hirelings of the Southern Pacific, and notwithstanding the whole political machinery of the State was in their hands backed by almost unlimited wealth and nearly the entire press of the State, a clean majority of the Legislature was returned against Stewart. They are apparently not satisfied with their crushing defeat, however, and are determined to foist their tool upon us for another six years, and to that end have established headquarters at Carson and imported a gang of thugs and gunfighters to intimidate the Legislature into returning Stewart whether or no.

As between the two men, Stewart and Newlands, there is no comparison to be made. No honest, thinking man will hesitate in declaring that had Newlands come out as an avowed candidate before the conventions he would have carried his legislative ticket in every county in the State. In fact there would have been practically no opposition. As it was, after Stewart's Reno declaration that "the name Democrat was obnoxious to a majority of the people of the State," there was no alternative for the Democracy but to put up tickets in opposition to him. The result proved the accuracy of the venerable bulldozer's political acumen, and now, after being repudiated at the polls he is determined to accomplish by fraud and intimidation what he could not by fair means. His course in the present contest is in perfect keeping with his whole political career. He and his ilk have given Nevada the appellation of the "Rotten Borough," and it is evidently his intention to now give notice to the world that if the corrupt use of money will not alone further debauch the State he desires to misrepresent, his masters stand ready to back him up with a gang of Hessian thugs and heelers.

The Legislature about to convene has within itself the power to free us now from the political thralldom which now oppresses us, and send a man to represent us who is free from allentangling alliances with the corrupt ring who have so long degraded our fair State in the eyes of the Nation. Will they be men enough to rise to the situation, or will they return to their constituent with the brand of traitors on their brows and the price of their shame in their pockets? We shall see.—Times Review.

The Use of Hot Drinks.

Hot drinks have come into wide use during late years among persons afflicted with indigestion. A tepid fluid exerts a marked sedative influence on the gastric mucous membrane and often relieves the painful sensations following the meals of a chronic dyspeptic. Less recognized perhaps is the influence of hot drinks on the motor functions of the stomach. In the ordinary course of events nothing remains in the stomach six hours after a meal, and the presence of alimentary debris after that period indicates the presence of some degree of muscular paresis. This condition of things may be greatly benefited by the use of hot water with or immediately after meals, but in chronic cases permanent benefit can only be obtained by perseverance, the treatment being methodically carried out for some months.

As might be anticipated, the hot water treatment does not ameliorate the venetory defects in the same degree as the muscular weakness, but by maintaining the stomach in a hygienic condition it may, at any rate, hope to check further degeneration of the peptic glands. The temperature of hot drinks should be from 105 to 110 degrees F.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

CAUSE FOR BLUENESS.

The clubman was looking particularly blue and when asked by his clubmates for the cause, he said: "This evening, just after dark, as I was coming down to the club, walking along, thinking of nothing in particular, I was hit in the back by what seemed to be a locomotive and knocked sprawling into the gutter. It was muddy there, and when I had collected my scattered senses I was all covered with dirt and also very mad. I looked around to see what hit me and found a young man and a safety bicycle on the pavement, all tangled up. I was mad, as I said before, and, without stopping to think what I did, I took that young man by the coat collar and kicked him off the pavement. Then I jumped on the bicycle, smashed all the spokes out of the wheels and generally disfigured it." Here the gentleman stopped, and one of his audience said:

"Well, why should that make you feel as you do? You did just the right thing!" "I suppose I hadn't ought to feel so," said the speaker, "but, you see, it was my boy and my bicycle."—Pearson's Weekly.

Animal Peculiarities.

A herd of wild Asian buffaloes will charge any foe, even a tiger, to save the life of one of their number who has been wounded. Elephants, baboons and other animals will do the same thing in a wild state.

On the other hand, monkeys have been known to fall upon one of their number who is ill and drown him, possibly as an act of mercy. Similarly wolves destroy one of the pack which becomes helpless.

If an otter is trapped, his brother otter will run around him all night, showing the utmost concern.

A writer in The Spectator states that he has seen sparrows in groups discussing and lamenting when one of their number had fallen into a trap. Next day, when a robin was caught, the sparrows paid no attention.

He adds that he had seen a big pig try to help a smaller one through a hole in the fence piling by pulling at its head.

St. John tells of a highland shepherd whose cat brought him some edible bird nearly every day in the year.

An Impression.

The friends of a local art connoisseur are telling a tiny but fairly good joke at his expense. It seems that he was passing up Baronne street the other day with a lady who had asked him to explain the meaning of the term "impressionist," and he halted before an unfinished building to illustrate his remarks. "The impressionist school," he said, "deals with effects in mass. Now, when I look at that wall over there I don't see the separate bricks. I merely"—Just then a careless mason on the upper scaffolding dropped a fragment from his pile of material and smashed in the top of the gentleman's new silk hat. He removed the shattered tile and gazed passively at the wreck. "I merely got an impression of brick," he added, with dignity.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Went Them Several Better.

Fritz Williams, the actor, was sitting one evening in a New York cafe, when two very young men came in. They beckoned condescendingly to a waiter.

"Waiter," said the one, "bring me a chop. Mind it's just right, now. Just mention my name to the cook."

"You may bring me a steak," said the other, just as grandly, "and tell the cook who it's for."

The waiter was half way across the room, which was crowded, when Fritz Williams hailed him.

"Waiter," he drawled, "bring me half a dozen Blue Points, and mention my name to every damned oyster."—Exchange.

Mythological Comparisons.

In the course of the conversation, which turned on mythology, the chancellor said he could never endure Apollo, who flayed Marsyas out of conceit and envy and slow the children of Niobe for similar reasons. "He is the genuine type of a Frenchman, one who cannot bear that another should play the flute better than or as well as himself."—"Bismarck Memoirs," by Busch.

Closing out sale of capes, jackets and carpets at Emerich's; above articles will positively be sold out, regardless of cost, and anyone in need of these goods will do exceptionally well and save money.

If Stewart could have had his way Newland's wouldn't have been elected Congressman. If Newland could have his way Stewart wouldn't be elected Senator. It's only a case of tit for tat—and for a few lengths ahead.

Board of City Council.
The Board of City Council met pursuant to adjournment last evening all members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved after which the old Board retired, and the new members took their seats.
The new Council organized by unanimously electing R. S. Osburn, President.

The order made at the last meeting for the removal of the Standard Oil Company's oil warehouse, was renewed and passed without objection.

H. P. Brown was elected superintendent of streets and sewers.
President Osburn then appointed the following committees:

On Water, Fire and Light—Messrs. Mighels, Noyes and Osburn.
On Streets, Alleys and Sewers—Messrs. Ryland, Roff and Mighels.

On Police and Police Regulations—Messrs. Roff, Noyes and Mighels.
On Ordinance and Revision of Ordinance—Messrs. Noyes, Roff and Ryland.

On Finance and Revenue—Messrs. Osburn, Noyes and Mighels.
The special committee appointed to examine the books of the officers reported their investigation satisfactory and gave the following data:

May 1, 1897, Bal. cash per transfer, $6,329 57.
Receipts, 1897, $14,809 98; 1898, 14,824 30. Total, $30,463 94.

Disbursements, 1897, $13,912 40; 1898, $16,421 10. Total $30,333 50.
Balance cash Jan. 1, 1899, $5,130 44.

Estimate of receipts for 1899, $9,470. Cash available for year, $14,600 44.
Mr. Noyes was given a vote of thanks for the very complete financial report he had furnished.

Councilman Noyes gave notice that he would, at the next regular meeting, move to rescind the order in relation to J. N. Evans removing certain obstructions in a public street and would move to give Mr. Evans five days to carry out the orders of the Board or place the matter in the hands of the City Marshal.

Assessor Evans was authorized to secure a plat book of the town of Reno, the city's proportion of the cost not to exceed $27.50.

A petition to repair the sidewalk on the alleyway, on the east side of Virginia street, between Second and Commercial Row, was read, and under the rule laid over.

The present superintendent of streets was retained until February 1st.
Bills amounting to $763.22 were audited and ordered paid.

"Under the Dome."
It is a curious fact often noted by writers on theatrical topics, and close observers of matters thespian that actors and actresses as a rule sigh for a line of parts absolutely unfitted for them and chafe painfully under the hard necessity of accepting the roles which all the world but themselves believe they are best fitted for.

The history of the stage is full of incidents in which an actor has been forced into a part of which he bitterly complained, and made his everlasting reputation. A case in point is that of the elder Southern and the part of Lord Dandery.

A comedian always wants to play a more serious line of parts; a soubrette almost always believing that her real part is leading business, and so it goes. It is rarely, however, that an author loses confidence in his play. The average author, until he has acquired recognition, must live entirely off his never-failing supply of self-confidence.

Singularly enough Lincoln J. Carter, author and owner of "Under the Dome," which comes to McKiesick's Opera House, on Friday, January 13th, had almost no faith in it before it was produced and stood ready to shelve it at once. It has proven by all odds to be the greatest success he has ever scored and is said to be not only a magnificent production scenically, but to be a wonderfully cleverly written and highly interesting play.

Right for Once.
Our esteemed neighbor, the Gazette has got off on its right foot for once. It doubtless had reference to the scenes which are likely to occur this winter at Carson where a horde of hired fighters will be on hand to assist our legislators in the selection of a United States Senator.

As a Gazette novelty the JOURNAL cheerfully produces the following from last Saturday evening's editorial.

"United States Senators should be elected by the people, and not by State legislatures. The scenes enacted in many State Capitals when a United States Senator is to be made are a disgrace to the Republic, and the most potent means of lowering the standard of politics, which is already low enough."

Hon. Evan Williams left here yesterday evening for San Francisco.

A. C. Cleveland came in yesterday and left for Carson on the local.
Many students returning to the University after vacation came in on the V. & T. last night.

Geo. Murphy, capitalist, was in Reno Sunday. He is investigating some of Nevada's mines.

H. Fournay, Supt. Air Brake Department of the S. P. R. R., was in Reno last Sunday.

It seems that Khalifa intended to "kill the English dogs." He did it in the same way that Weyler exterminated the Yankee pigs.

Those meals served at the Washoe Lunch Counter are excellent. Go there to-day and eat your dinner and you will get your money's worth.

That man who shot nine practical jokers because one of them had induced him to sit down upon a tack, rather overdid the business. We believe the punishment should fit the crime. Eight would have been enough.

Why don't our farmers keep more bees? Nevada honey is the best in the market and it is a wonder that more people do not engage in this sweet and gentle industry. Bees are the only kind of stock that a man's neighbors will pasture for him without charge. There is something sylvan and delightful, too, in making honey and money at the same time from flowers.

Six O'clock Movement.
We, the undersigned, do solemnly declare and agree to close our respective establishments at 6 o'clock P. M. every day, Saturday excepted. This agreement to go into effect Monday, January 15th, and continue until December 16, 1899, inclusive; and we further agree not to transact any business after that hour. (Signed):

Palace Dry Goods House,
Sol Levy,
R. Herz & Bro.,
S. Emerich,
W. G. Doane,
Mrs. F. C. Petrie.

Proviso by S. Emerich: It is agreed if after the 1st of May the majority of the signers of this agreement find that early closing is detrimental to their business, this agreement is null and void.

Revival Meetings.
Last night Rev. G. H. Jones continued the series of revival meetings at the M. E. church. He preached a most earnest sermon from the text, "Come, for All Things Are Now Ready."

At the close of his burning exhortation the altar was filled with persons seeking salvation and many professed conversion.

The meetings continue to increase in power and fervor. Mr. Jones will preach every evening this week except Saturday evening and cordially invites everyone to attend.

Nevada's Songstress Honored.
Miss Mabel Stanaway, who has been in Boston for some time having her wonderful voice cultivated, has accepted a position in the choir of the First Baptist church at Doncaster, Mass.

As the church is the largest and most imposing in the city, the fact that Miss Stanaway has been engaged by it, pays a high tribute to her talent. Her many friends here will be pleased to learn of her success.

Dr. Stubbs Will Leave Reno.
Since the attack of inflammatory rheumatism that he contracted in the east, the able educator's health has been in a poor condition. As soon as he can get away from the duties attendant upon registration, he will take a trip to California and try the curative effect of her mineral springs.

The Doctor is looking quite broken down physically and it is to be hoped that he will return to us as hale and hearty as of yore.

Lieutenant Brambilla Here.
Leut. Robert Brambilla, U. S. A., arrived here from San Francisco Sunday morning. He is on a furlough and comes to Reno to recuperate from the severe illness he suffered while in San Francisco. He will remain in Nevada for several weeks and then rejoin his company, which is now at Manila. "Toby" was warmly welcomed by his many Reno friends.

District Court.
The case of Philippen Hoffman vs. Becker Brewing Co. for rent and possession was taken up yesterday but not concluded. It will be continued at 3 P. M. to-day.

The case of Thomas vs. Blaisdell will be opened to-day.

A Prospective Wedding.
Lieut. Frank and Mr. Cole will be married at the Salvation Army barracks next Wednesday evening. The wedding will be public and ten cents charged for admission; refreshments 15 cents.
Ensign Lines is expected to be here in time to perform the ceremony. In case he does not arrive the Rev. Hudson of the Baptist church will officiate.

An Interesting Case.
All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P. Dunn's show case on Virginia street, down by the iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display, of all that is modern in photography. There one may see large opulatypes, small autotypes and lovely porcelains. Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of this? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—silk handkerchiefs. What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it?

How To Look Good.
Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at S. J. Hodkinson's Drug Store. 50 cents per bottle.

An Enterprising Druggist.
There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than S. J. Hodkinson, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his money customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all affection of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Call at above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cent and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

State Central Committee Meeting.
A meeting of the Silver Party State Central Committee will be held at Carson City on Thursday, January 12th, 1899, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of considering the possible contest in the gubernatorial election and contests of legislative seats. Matters of interest to the Silver party organization will be presented. A full attendance of the committee is requested.

By order of the Executive Committee.
*j4td N. W. Roff, Secretary.

Notice to Applicants.
Notice is hereby given that the County Board of Examination will hold its first semi-annual examination for teachers' certificates at the High School building, Reno, Nevada, commencing at 8:30 A. M. Monday, January 9, 1899.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.
ORR WATER DITCH COMPANY—Location of property, Washoe County, Nevada; place of business, Reno, Nevada.
 Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Orr Water Ditch Company, held on the 7th day of January, 1899, an assessment (No. 67) of three cents per share was levied upon the every share of the capital stock of the company, payable immediately in gold to the Treasurer, the First National Bank of Reno, and all monies upon which the assessment shall remain unpaid on Saturday, February 11, 1899.

 Will be delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold by the Secretary as the property of the company, on Wednesday, March 15, 1899, at 2 o'clock P. M. of that day, to pay the delinquent assessment and expenses of sale.
 By order of the Board of Trustees,
O. GULLING, Secretary.
 RENO, January 7, 1899.

An Old Missouri Bridge.
 There is an old lattice bridge across the North Fabius creek, near Monticello, Lewis county, that was built in the year 1845. It is said that it was the first bridge of the kind built in north Missouri. The timber was taken from government land and was sawed into lumber at a water mill and with whip-saws. The contractors were seven months on the job, for which they received $100.—Kansas City Journal.

The German Pooh Bah.
 "I don't know that there is much use of my keeping my school open more than a month or two each year," said
 the German pedagogue.
 "Why is that?"
 "Our emperor has simplified matters to such an extent that when you ask the name of the world's greatest poet, painter, musician, general, traveler or monarch there is only one answer to all the questions."—Washington Star.

Among Other Things.
 "So you've lost your new servant already?" remarked a lady sympathetically to a neighbor.
 "Yes."
 "What time did she go?"
 "I really can't tell," was the reply.
 "She took my watch with her."—Rose-leau.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER AND EX-OFFICIO TAX COLLECTOR OF THE COUNTY OF WASHOE.
 December 24, 1898.
 To the above-named delinquent taxpayers, and to all owners of or claimants to the real estate and improvements thereon, or improvements when assessed separately, hereinbefore described, known or unknown, and on which the tax does not exceed three hundred dollars.
 You are hereby notified that under and by virtue of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Nevada entitled "An Act to Provide Revenue for the Support of the General Government of the State or Nevada," approved March 23,
